Dear All,

This is to inform you that Capital Development Authority (CDA) has requested to restore their advertising on electronic media which was banned due to suspension of Government advertising, and that CDA has cleared their outstanding electronic media dues.

In consideration of the above request, Capital Development Authority (CDA), Government of Pakistan has been allowed to release business through their appointed accredited advertising agencies.

Members are requested to accept the business of above client with immediate effect as their business is restored.

Best Regards,

Muhammad Ali Butt
